

Agenda - Day 2: Saturday, April 2

9:00 am—Welcome

9:20 am—Guest Speaker » Amy Jo Hutchison

10:30 am—Strategic Planning

11:45 am—Lunch

1:00 pm—Strategic Planning

2:45 pm—Closing Remarks

3:00 pm—Social Hour!

Amy Jo Hutchison

Amy Jo Hutchison is a born and raised West Virginian. She began organizing in poor and marginalized communities across the state in 2017, using her lived experience of poverty to connect with people who share the same experience. In February 2020,

Amy Jo spoke to the United States House Committee on Oversight and Reform regarding the poverty level in Washington D.C. Her testimony went viral and has provided the opportunity to discuss poverty on a much broader stage. She is building a movement grounded in West Virginia, Rattle the Windows, with folks impacted by the issues, focused on economic justice. In October of 2021, she appeared in episode 3 of "The Problem with Jon Stewart," "The Economy," in which she discussed the issues affecting the working poor. Amy Jo can be reached at rattlethewindows@gmail.com.

2022 Board Retreat

April 1-2

Fresno
Economic Opportunities Commission

We Value...

Working together to accelerate change.
Centering our work around equity and inclusion.
Trustworthiness and transparency.
The community's voice and direction.
Empathy, compassion, and the human connection.

Our Mission...

We fight to end poverty.

Our Vision...

A strong Fresno County where people have resources to shape their future free from poverty.

Agenda - Day 1: Friday, April 1

9:00 am—Welcome
9:20 am—Introductions
10:00 am—Head Start Training
11:00 am—Break
11:15 am—CAP60 Overview
12:00 pm—Lunch
1:00 pm—Guest Speaker » David Knight
1:50 pm—Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI)
2:45 pm—We Connect Activity
3:00 pm—AB 1234 Ethics Training
5:00 pm—Closing

David Knight

David Knight is a nationally certified Results Oriented Management & Accountability (ROMA) Master Trainer in which he trains Community Action Agencies all over the United States. He has been involved in non-profit management for 17 years, including 13 years in Community Action & Head Start management. He began his career in community action in Pikeville, KY as a business service representative under the WIA (Workforce Investment Act), then a special projects coordinator in the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, and then to Community Services Director under the Community Services Block Grant (CSBG). At the age of 29, David became the youngest executive director in Arkansas state history as the Executive Director for Pine Bluff Jefferson County EOC. David also worked with the National Association for Community Services Programs (NASCSPP) out of Washington, D.C. as the Community Services Director for the entire US before becoming the Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer for Hinds County Human Resource Agency in Jackson, Mississippi. David Knight can be reached at dknight@calcapa.org.